Heights juniors lead after first leg of junior match.....

After an exciting afternoon of matchplay golf, it is Katameya Heights Junior team that take a 1 points lead going into the second leg of the inaugural match to be played at Heights in January. On a perfect afternoon for golf, 8 juniors players from each club competed in four 4-ball matches over the Dune's Lakes course. IN the opening match, Heights pairing of Burton and Hassan Said defeated Bent and Bill Kidd 2/1. The second match went in favor of Heights with Ali Lemmon and Callum Gibson defeating Zizo Said and Harry Butterworth with Heights winning 2/1. In match three some outstanding golf from the Heights pairing of William Foda and Euan Morrison gave them a comfortable victory over Stewart and Andrew McLean.

The fourth and final match of the day, went down to the wire with excellent play, in front of many spectators and fellow team members. The Heights pairing of Soraya and Nazly Scarello finished with a halved match again the Dunes pairing of Dominic Coutts and Alex Kidd. The match went down to the 18th green in near darkness with the hole halved in excellent par 5s. The second leg of the match will take place at Katameya Heights on Saturday 19th January 2013.
